Time is a valuable resource we all take for granted. Time passed is history. A lesson can be learned from an old English proverb, "Time and tide wait for no man." Man has been successful in space flights to the moon, but he cannot control the tide or inhibit the flow of time. We cannot control time, but we can control our activities with which we displace it. In our age of high technology, wasted time is costly. Time creates changes, and we must be prepared to meet them in today's highly competitive marketplace. We are dedicated to preparing you to meet the challenges that will ultimately face you in the future. We feel you have made a wise investment of your time — an investment that will appreciate with time — in pursuing your education at Florence-Darlington Technical College. We want you to always remember the time spent at Florence-Darlington TEC as rewarding and enjoyable. As time brings us to the close of the 1984-85 academic year, I offer my best wishes for a successful future.

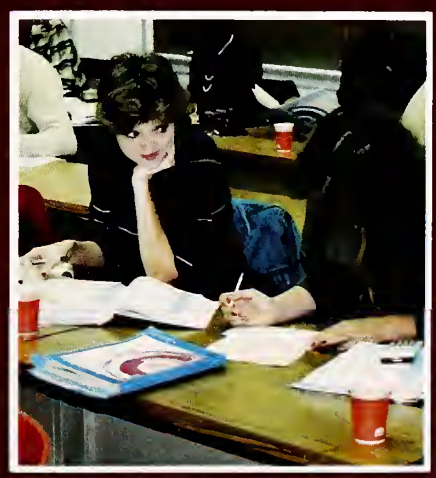
The mind of man works with strangeness upon the body of time. An hour, once it lodges in the queer element of the human spirit, may be stretched to fifty or a hundred times its clock length; on the other hand, an hour may be accurately represented by the timepiece of the mind by one second.
Virginia Woolf



We all find time to do what we really want to do.

STUDENT LIFE

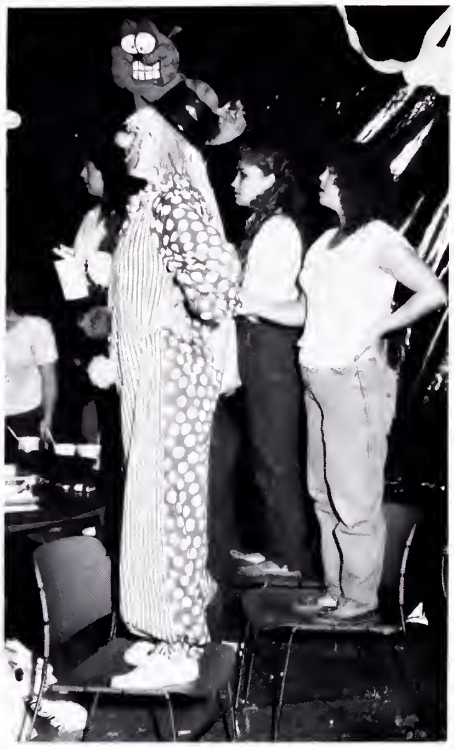
TIME IS HERE
TIME IS NOW

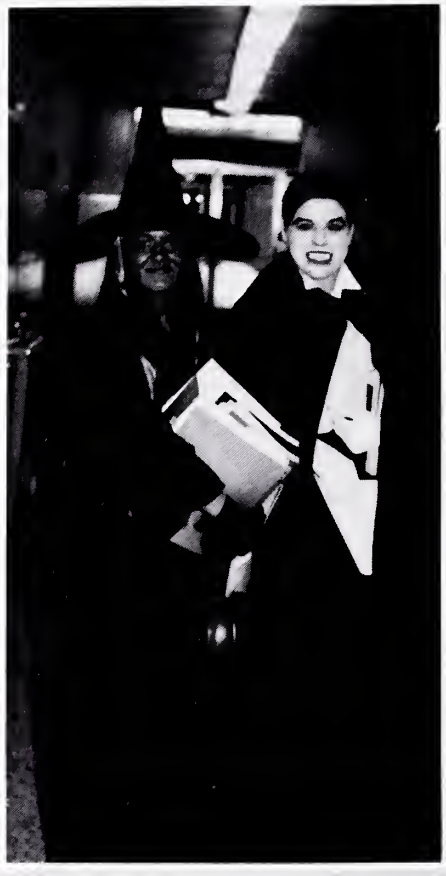
Time is elusive . . . it is relative. It never stands still, although it may seem to. It never flies even though we are certain it does. We all have time, although we complain bitterly there is no time. The secret to controlling time lies in controlling the activities displaced with it.

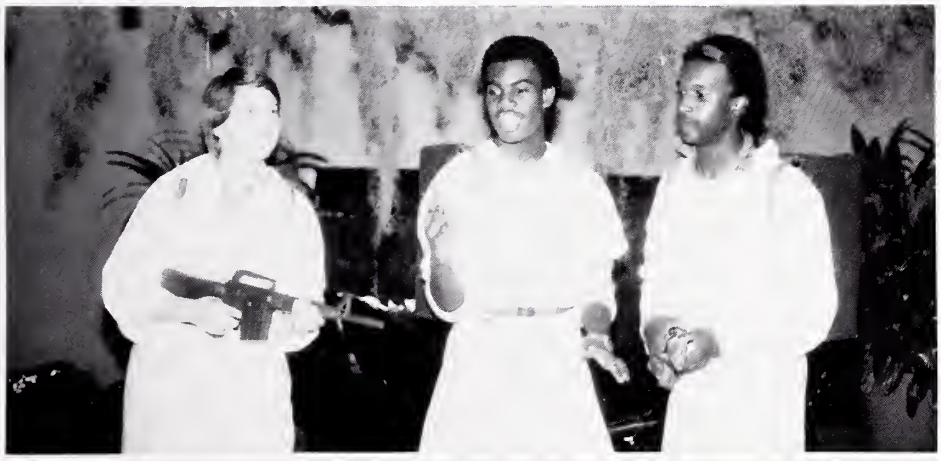
FOR THE FUN OF IT!

Throughout the year, the Programming Board sponsored many tournament activities to encourage competition among the more athletic minded students. This past year some of these activities included basketball, volleyball and pool tournaments as well as card games. In addition, there were off campus events such as skating and bowling parties and a putt-putt tournament.

WITCHES, GHOSTS and GOBLINS . . .







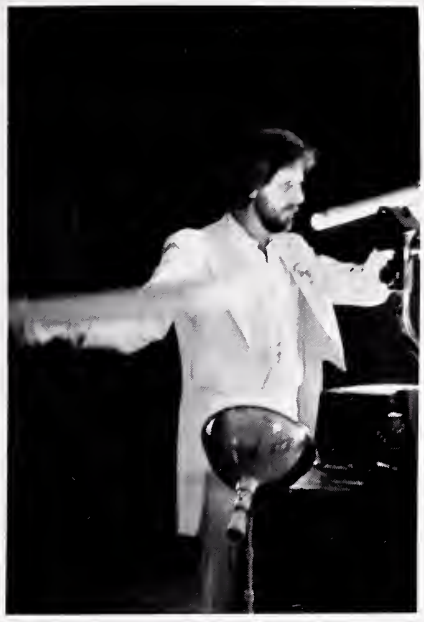
GHOSTBUSTERS!!

Ray Parker, Jr.'s hit song, "I Ain't 'Fraid of No Ghosts," was given a touch of class as the Programming Board sponsored it's Halloween Bash, October 31.

It was truly a site as witches, ghosts and goblins bobbed for apples, carved pumpkins and even stuffed their faces with bananas. Dracula's tomb, the jail and the cookout were favorites.

In addition, the costume contest (which was quite spooky, produced many "freaky creatures.")

George Brockington and the Programming Board did an excellent job of turning the Student Lounge into halloween fun for everyone.



THE PROGRAMMING BOARD PRESENTS

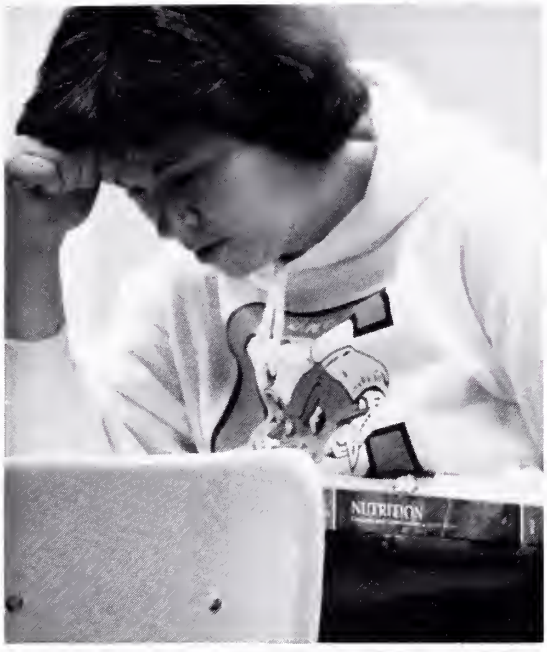
Ken Alcorn. A one-man mime show who uses music, comedy and drama to completely absorb his audience. His characters, some real and some imaginary, are created by using illusionary mime, masks audience participation and spontaneity.

Steve Gipson. A combined caricature artist and comedian. Gipson's show includes a monologue using hilarious drawings. In a white tuxedo he keeps his audiences rolling throughout his show.

Phelston Jones. An "abracadabra" magician. Audiences remain captivated and awed as Jones uses the techniques of acting, mime, jazz dance and the martial arts in a most unusual magical experience.

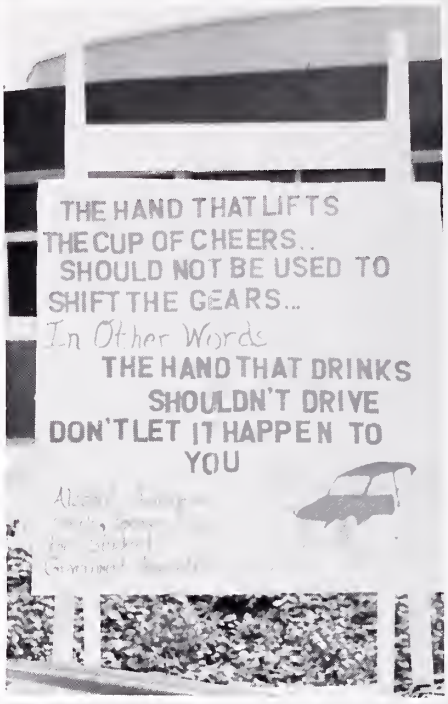
The Programming Board was proud to present the above artists in '84-'85. There's more sure to come. So stay tuned.

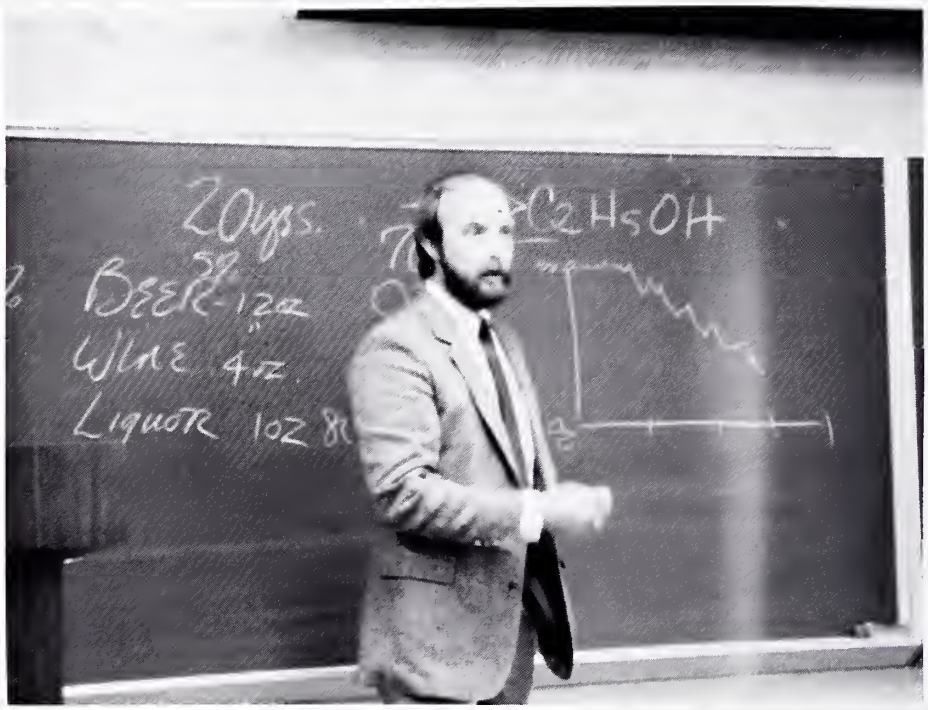
KNOWLEDGE IS POWER . . .



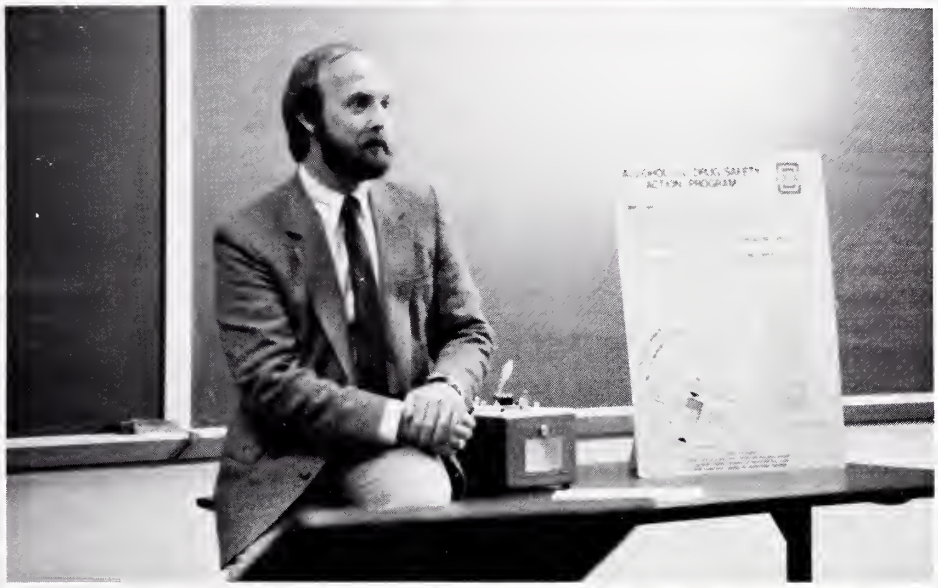
BUT FUN IS EVERYTHING

"FRIENDS DON'T LET FRIENDS DRIVE DRUNK"





Alcohol Awareness



With the growing concern about drinking and driving, the Student Government Association felt it was important to become involved in an alcohol awareness program. Throughout the month of January there were speakers, posters and bookmarks, and an alcohol-related wrecked car on display.

The highlight of the month was an alcohol fair, held in the student lounge. A carnival type atmosphere prevailed. Clowns, balloons and festive decorations made learning about alcohol interesting. During the fair, representatives from various organizations were on hand to answer questions and give out leaflets and other information.

Response to the alcohol awareness month was great. Thanks SGA!

A TRIBUTE TO AMERICA
1985 MS. TEC PAGEANT

"A Tribute to America" was really a "TRIBUTE" as twelve of TEC's loveliest girls displayed their patriotism during the annual Ms. TEC Pageant, February 7th.

Throughout the evening the girls danced and performed their way through the most successful and exciting Ms. TEC Pageants ever held. The Ms. TEC Pageant is one of the most important Activities sponsored by the Student Government Association.

Angela Rowell, the reigning Ms. TEC, performed vocals throughout the pageant, as did TEC students, Lori Farthing and Russell Gregg. In addition, Jane Jenkins Herlong, Miss South Carolina 1980, captivated the audience as she expressed her feelings through song.

As the pageant drew to a close, Toni Hooks of Mullins was named second-runner-up and Tracy Byrd of Florence was first-runner-up.

"And our new Ms. Florence-Darlington Technical College is . . . Kaye Stokes of Florence.

Congratulations Kaye — May your reign be a happy one.

Spring Fling/Fall Bash

What do fun, games, competition and people all have in common? They're all a part of Spring Fling and Fall Bash, annual field days sponsored by the SGA and Programming Board. Fun — because they're made up of events that keep you laughing, lively and loaded with energy. Games, such as tug-of-war, balloon relays, sack races and of course, the dunking booth are always included. Competition throughout these activities match wit with wit, strength with strength and curriculum with curriculum. And there's also a cookout and D.J. for those who just want to sit back and relax. Without you, Spring Fling and Fall Bash wouldn't be complete.

The Student Government Association. What is it? It could possibly be described best as, "a group of students making things happen through leadership and teamwork."

Under the leadership of Jimmy Lewis, President of the SGA, things really happened at TEC in 84-85. What type of things? Cookouts, parties, special entertainment and sports tournaments were just a small beginning. Also, blood drives, fund raisers for charities and — the Ms. TEC Pageant. All of these activities proved to be rewarding experiences for everyone participating. In addition to becoming involved in activities such as these, SGA members had the opportunity to meet new students, instructors and become a part of a whole new world.

Students involved in the SGA generally want a lot more than classes. They want to increase their knowledge, learn how the set priorities and goals, and most of all, have FUN!!!

Become a part of our team and we can make things happen in 85-86. Come join us ... The Student Government Association at Florence Darlington Technical College.

SGA Visits Washington

Experts in education feel that students need a variety of extra curricular activities accompanying their classroom studies to give them a well rounded education.

Here at Florence-Darlington TEC one of the best of these activities is the Student Government Association (SGA). The rewards of being an involved member of the SGA can be great. This past year a trip to the "Big D.C." (Washington) was the highlight.

March 2-5, seven SGA members boarded Amtrack to Washington, where they spent several days touring the city. The Capital, White House, Arlington Cemetary, the Smithsonian Institute, and the "Monuments" were favorites of everyone.

The trip was an educational experience in itself and it was a once in a lifetime opportunity for some. Involvement is the Key!

Groundbreaking took place for the new 600 building November 6, 1983, during TEC's twentieth year celebration. A year and a half later, April 10, 1985, class began in the newly constructed Auto-Diesel Building.

Efford Windham
Vice-President Business/Finance
B.S. and M.Ed., University of South Carolina
Timmonsville, S.C.

In his 18 years as an employee at TEC, Efford Windham has had the difficult job of distributing available funds to meet the needs of the college.

Windham has witnessed and been a part of many significant changes, including the 200, 300, 400, and 5000 Buildings as well as the newly constructed 600 Building.

In the next two to five years Windham foresees the construction of a new Learning Resources Center as well as a new Student Center.

Windham is involved in most church and community groups, as well as most outdoor activities.

B.S. Business Administration — Virginia Polytechnic Institute
M.A. Education — South Carolina State
Florence, S.C.

James T. "Mickey" Foster has seen TEC grow from 600 students a year to over 2,000 a year. In addition, the campus acreage, as well as the square footage for building space, has more than doubled.

A major change Foster sees in the future is the retraining of area people to meet the needs of a changing society.

Foster has been employed at TEC for seventeen years.

Mr. Foster, when he has time, enjoys other activities which include golf, tennis and refinishing antiques. He is also the past President of the Palmetto Optimist Club and the Florence Jaycees.

Division Of EDUCATIONAL AFFAIRS

Darrel W. Staat
Vice-President for Educational Affairs
B.A. Hope College
M.A. Western Michigan University
D.A. University of Michigan
Hartsville, SC

In his position at TEC, Darrel Staat has been able to hire high caliber faculty as well as promote excellence in teaching.

Dr. Staat has been a busy person in his six and one-half years at TEC witnessing many changes in the programs offered. "More revision will be needed more frequently in every curriculum." Staat also foresees the rapid movement toward the inclusion of computer courses in all curricula.

Active in community involvement, Staat is a member of the Florence Kiwanis Club, Chairman of the Chamber Education Committee and member of the United Way Allocation Committee.

Division Of STUDENT SERVICES

Throughout his ten years at TEC, David Barr has seen the college become "more responsive to the needs of our service area." The introduction of new technologies on TEC's campus are a result of "continuous evaluation of our current curricula."

As new technologies evolve and become obsolete within a much shorter time-frame, Barr anticipates the need for more short term curricula in the future.

Barr enjoys reading, movies and fishing, and he is a member of various civic and professional organizations.

Division Of HEALTH STUDIES

The development and expansion of the Nursing curriculum on the TEC campus was coordinated by Billie Boette, and since Summer 1984, she has worked to "improve, update and establish standards which create for the students the educational background to be successful practitioners in all areas of the health care system in the Pee Dee."

In her eleven years at TEC, Ms. Boette has seen the school grow from a technical education center to a college.

Ms. Boette is active in all phases of community involvement including church activities, professional organizations, and Leadership Florence. In her spare time, she enjoys traveling and photography.

Division Of
BUSINESS AND GENERAL STUDIES

In her eight years at TEC, Penny Bladon has seen many changes, one of the most prevalent being "more females entering the job market." With the increases in computer technology as well as service oriented professions, Mrs. Bladon has also seen TEC expand in versatility and credibility.

As an educator Mrs. Bladon has been instrumental in helping students "see the worth and the practicality of good communication skills."

Mrs. Bladon enjoys reading, swimming, and music, and she is also an avid supporter of the Florence Ballet Company. She conducts seminars in business and technical communication, time management, and the teaching of composition.

"The students look younger every year," says Carol McVey.

The recent changes in the traffic flow and landscaping on the TEC campus have had a positive effect. In addition to the recent changes, Mrs. McVey foresees others, including expansion to the east campus and a new student center.

Throughout her thirteen years at TEC, Mrs. McVey has worked diligently to encourage students to study so they can succeed in their chosen profession.

When time permits, Mrs. McVey enjoys golf and needlework and is also involved in Leadership Florence.

Division Of CONTINUING EDUCATION

Through Continuing Education, adult student are offered a broad variety of training which gives them a chance to upgrade their life-style. J.C. Hudson states that "by teaching over 500 courses annually over 8000 people annually have an opportunity to improve themselves."

In the future Hudson foresees more emphasis placed on the older students. He also sees the continuing Education Division becoming more centralized on campus.

Hudson has been a TEC employee for 18 years and has seen many changes including the addition of seven buildings, the increase in staff and faculty as well as tremendous growth Continuing Education.

A sports enthusiast, Hudson enjoys hunting and fishing.

JIM LEWIS
SGA PRESIDENT 1984-85

Life is like a crossroad ... you come to a certain point ... and you have to make a decision of which way to go.

When I finished high school, I came to a crossroad ... I had to make the decision of either going to work or continuing my education. I chose to continue my education ... then another decision had to be made ... I had to choose which school I wanted to attend.

I chose Florence-Darlington Technical College ... and I am glad I did. At that time, I did not want to make a long commitment. I knew I could make another decision at the end of two years. Coming here, I feel, was a wise decision. I have gained a wealth of knowledge ... I have made many lasting friendships ... I have learned to work with college administrators ... and ... I have acquired leadership experience that will help me throughout my life.

Now ... with graduation upon me ... I am at another crossroad ... I have to make another decision. The learning experience I have enjoyed at TEC has created a desire in me to work toward a baccaulerate degree.

My farewell to you saddens me deeply. I will never forget my alma mater ... and nothing can replace the empty feeling I now experience. I can only hope, though, that sometime in the future ... possibly at another crossroad ... another decision will cause our paths to cross again.

Sincerely,

Jim

ANGELA ROWELL
Ms. TEC 1984

It is hard to believe that an entire year has passed and my reign has come to an end. When Kimberly Harrelson crowned me "Ms. Florence-Darlington TEC, 1984," I had no idea that the year ahead of me would be filled with so many exciting and memorable experiences.

It has been an honor to wear the crown of Ms. TEC. I have had the opportunity to represent not only my College but also the students and my friends who have been so warm and supportive during my reign.

Festivals, parades, pageants, and other special appearances around the state have all added up to a wonderful year. Of course, none of these events could have been possible without the help of a true friend, business manager and chaperone — Susan Winchester. I'm truly grateful, Susan!

My farewell would not be complete without thanking my wonderful family. Thank you, Ma, for all of your advice and for giving so much of your time and effort. Thank you Daddy and Granny, for all your support and encouragement throughout the year. And to my someone special — my best friend — thank you for your understanding and patience and for being there when I needed you. I love you all, and I thank God every day for you.

TEC, it has been a special year, and I have been proud to represent you as your queen. Thank you!

God Bless each of you,

Angela

There Is No Death

THERE IS A PLAN far greather than you know;
THERE is a landscape broader than the one you see.
THERE is a haven where storm-tossed souls may go —
YOU call it death — we, immortality.

YOU call it death — this seeming endless sleep;
WE call it birth — the soul at last set free.
'TIS hampered not by time or space — you weep.
WHY weep at death? Tis immortality.

FAREWELL, dear voyageur — 'TWILL not be long.
YOUR work is done — now may peace rest with thee.
YOUR kindly thoughts and deeds — they will live on.
THIS is not death — 'tis immortality.

FAREWELL, dear voyageur — the river winds and turns;
THE cadence of your song wafts near to me,
AND now you know the thing that all men learn:
THERE is no death — there's immortality.
